

English

- I can analyse The Highwayman Poem.
- I can use a variety of writing techniques to recap the poem.
- I can re-write Part 2 of the poem, following the original structure.

Topic -

- I can understand how living conditions differed for people in all areas of society in Leeds from the 17th to the 20th Century.
- I can see what has stayed the same and what has changed throughout history and the effects of key event, such as the law.
- I can use local history research and see contrasts and connections between different periods of time.

Maths

- I can identify 3D shapes, including cubes and other cuboids, from 2D representations.
- I can find missing lengths and angles of shapes.
- I can estimate, measure and draw angles.
- I can identify, describe and represent the position of a shape following a reflection or translation.
- I can convert between different units of metric measure.
- I can estimate volume and capacity.

Reading

- I can explore the reasoning behind chosen vocabulary.
- I can retrieve information directly from a text.
- I can explain the reasoning for a character's actions.

Year 5 - The Highwayman

Science

- I can develop my scientific knowledge and skills by completing Crest Awards and apply my knowledge in investigating different science challenges.

PE

- I can plan activities for sports day.
- I can decide on a fair scoring system.
- I can simplify the activity for younger children.
- I can follow the simplified rules of cricket.
- I can bowl both under and over arm.
- I can decide the best position to field.
- I can hit the ball in a desired direction.

Other Subjects

Computing - I can develop an educational computer game using selection and repetition.

Spanish - Going shopping

RE - What matters most to believers

Art - I can explore various aspects of Japanese art and use some of their techniques in my work.

PHCE

- The topic 'Getting on and falling out' aims to support the children in dealing with everyday situations and friendship problems.

International

I can research and present information about the change of laws since the 17th Century in countries around Europe.