

Tuesday 17th December 2019

Dear Parent/Carer,

On Tuesday 14th January 2020, Year 6 will be visiting United Hebrew Congregation in Leeds. This school trip will link to our RE topic 'How do the Abrahamic religions express their beliefs?'. We will be participating in a tour around the synagogue and discussing the Hebrew beliefs and rituals.

The children will need a screw-topped plastic bottled with water in a bag or rucksack. They will need warm outdoor clothes, rainproof gear and foot wear suitable for a 30-minute walk to the synagogue. Boys without a religious head cover need to bring a cap to wear during the visit. It is a sign of respect to cover the back of the head of male visitors when visiting a synagogue.

We will be leaving school by foot at 12:30 pm and will be returning to school for 3:15 pm. The children will have their lunch at school as usual, packed lunch or school dinner.

Please return your consent slip by Tuesday 7th January 2020.

Thank you.

Yours faithfully,

Mrs Nau-Berry and Miss Daniels
